BONNIE MAY BE OAKLAND RIDDLE

Girl With the Pink Mask Is Invited to This City

Will We Be Able to Solve Famous Feminine Mystery?

There is a strong probability that Miss Bonnie Burr, New York's mystery woman known as the "Veiled Princess" and the "Girl With the Pink Mask" will come to Oakland.

Believing that the readers of THE TRIBUNE would find instruction and entertainment in matching their individual cleverness against the trained ability of the famous woman sleuth, this newspaper early Thursday challenged Miss Bonnie Burr to visit Oakland and present to the public the same test as given in New York, Boston, Chicago and other cities.

In the event of her acceptance of the challenge THE TRIBUNE will make the chase doubly interesting by offering a large reward to the first man or woman who penetrates her disguise and properly identifies her. Miss Burr's answer to THE TRIBUNE's challenge will be published in Friday's issue.

LOS ANGELES, July 23.—Wearing a dainty pink mask that effectively hid her features and her hair, a woman was seen in the city of the angels today.

She is the same young woman who won fame in the east by amazing social conquest among the 400, later puzzling the police and public of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Chicago and recently San Francisco by her rare ability to assume disguise.

Reporters besieged the Alexander hotel, where she is stopping, trying to obtain an interview. The girl has just returned from a visit to some of California's resort cities, where her eccentricities thoroughly mystified smart set colonies. In public everywhere she appeared with masked features so that she became known as "The Girl With the Pink Mask."

Miss Burr has been the recipient of scores of letters and telegrams from cities in all parts of the United States inviting her to give a demonstration of her ability by defying police and public to apprehend her in her many skillful disguises.

INVITED TO OAKLAND.

A special correspondent of THE TRIBUNE succeeded in gaining an audience with the mystery girl at her hotel today. He openly challenged Miss Burr to visit Oakland and give her work a tryout.

"I am receiving many challenges,"

S. F. YOUTH BREAKS WORLD RECORD IN SHORTHAND MATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—In a speed trial held before Judge Sturtevant, presiding over the Superior court of San Francisco, Lashier B. Gallagher, 23 years old, who has studied stenography only two years, wrote 284 words a minute, which was as fast as anybody in the room could read to him, but apparently not as fast as he could write. In the national shorthand speed contests, 280 words a minute is the highest reading speed, and in the last contest the winner got 272 words correct.

Young Gallagher read his notes back correctly, and comparison with the original, which was a legal transcript totally unfamiliar to him, showed that he had not made an error.

NEPHEW OF BALDWIN DEAD

Ex-Husband of Mrs. McClaughry Paralysis Victim

Terminating an adventurous career, in which he at times was a famous turfman, manager of the historic Baldwin Hotel in San Francisco and public official, and during which he eloped with the daughter of his uncle, George Baldwin, nephew of the late E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin, died last night from paralysis at a Los Angeles hotel of which he was the proprietor. News of his death reached his Oakland friends today.

Baldwin was next to his famous uncle, one of the best known racing men of his time in the old days of the Emeryville racetrack. He raced a string of his uncles Santa Anita thoroughbreds for years and was the guide and preceptor of many noted sporting men who made their headquarters in the old Baldwin Hotel before his elopement with Baldwin's daughter, his cousin, which caused a "falling out" between uncle and nephew.

The elopement was one of the sensations of the bay region. Baldwin and his cousin boarded a tug, went out to sea and had the captain perform the ceremony on the ocean beyond the jurisdiction of the United States. Following this escapade he and his uncle fell out and he was discharged from the hotel. He then got a position in the San Francisco city hall, where he was employed for some time.

THEN DOMESTIC TROUBLE.

A year later he and his uncle were reconciled and then he and his wife married. She divorced him and

Former President Advocates Fusion Ticket for State Election

NEW YORK, July 23.—Chairman William Barnes of the Republican state committee announced today that he had instructed his counsel to bring suit for libel against Theodore Roosevelt, based on Colonel Roosevelt's statement of last night attacking Barnes and endorsing the candidacy of Harvey D. Hinman for the nomination for governor at the Republican primaries.

In his statement Roosevelt said: "In this campaign I have a duty to the Progressives of the nation and a duty also to the state of New York. In national politics, in so far as I am able I shall endeavor to strive for the success of the principles embodied in the Progressive national platform. Therefore, I shall oppose the policies of the present administration, which I regard as deeply injurious alike to the honor and the interest of the American people."

PUBLIC DUTY.

"But in this state the prime duty is a good citizens' movement, a united movement, to save the state from the bipartisan control of Messrs. Barnes and Murphy, precisely like the good citizens' movement last year, when by union the city of New York was saved from the domination of Mr. Murphy. I hope with all my heart that all independent citizens, whether Progressives, Republicans or Democrats in their national affiliation, will stand shoulder to shoulder for clean non-partisan government in the state at large this fall."

The amount of damages for which Barnes would sue apparently had not been determined.

Bootlegger Kills Two U. S. Marshals

TULSA, Okla., July 23.—Holmes Davidson, United States marshal for this district, and William R. Plank, a deputy, were shot and almost instantly killed today by William Baber, when they attempted to enter the latter's residence to search it for contraband liquor.

Congress Refuses to Reconsider Fair Bill

WASHINGTON, July 23.—By a vote of 135 to 108 the House today refused to reconsider its action in agreeing with the Senate on an appropriation of $500,000 for a Government building at the San Francisco exposition.

ALAMEDA COUNTY IS NOW RAPIDLY SWINGING INTO LINE UNDER THE BANNER OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

With the County Clerk's office still crowded with voters in one of the busiest registration seasons ever seen in this county, the Progressive lead over the Republicans, which has fallen off constantly since the beginning of the investigation of County Clerk John P. Cook into the Progressive registration frauds, this morning was estimated at a little less than 1000 by the attacks of the office.

Yesterday saw 420 Republicans registered over the counter at the clerk's office, against only 155 Progressives. The total new registration, not counting the changes which are tabulated separately, show the Republican registration in the county to be 40,693, against a Progressive total of 45,005. The changes, not tabulated, are estimated by the county clerk as more than 1500, but Cook prefers to leave it at this figure that the estimate may be conservative.

NEW ALIGNMENT.

This takes 1500 from the Progressive registration of 45,005, and adds this figure to the Republican registration of 40,693. In other words it leaves the actual standing of the parties as Republican, 42,193, against a Progressive registration of 43,505. This has cut the lead of the Progressives from its old total of more than 4000, before the investigation, to 1312.

The letters in answer to Cook's registration investigation are coming in still, but only in a small figure. Out of fifty-seven answers counted this morning thirteen voters charged that they had registered as Republicans and had been changed to Progressives.

The indications are that this county will be registered Republican by Saturday night by a majority. It is urged on their duty and see that their names are on the register.

LET EVERY REPUBLICAN DO HIS DUTY. See that your name is on the great register before Saturday night and also see you are REGISTERED A REPUBLICAN.

GARRANZA AGREES

Armistice in Mexico Within Three Days Is Now Expected.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—A delegation authorized by Provisional President Carranza to negotiate for terms of peace with General Carranza was due to leave Vera Cruz today for Tampico. Within two or three days an armistice suspending hostilities throughout Mexico is expected. Carranza already has notified the State Department he will agree.

Messages from Provisional President Carranza to that effect were shown today by his personal representative, Joseph E. Castellot, to Secretary Bryan.

Castellot told the reports from Mexico City to the effect that an armistice already had been signed were premature, but with the arrival of the Carranza delegates at Carranza's headquarters such a truce would be made.

Word was received from General Carranza by his agents here that he intended to spend but a few days in Tampico, returning then to Saltillo. He wired that he had ordered General Gonzalez and his forces at San Luis Potosi to proceed at once to Queretaro, to form a junction with the forces of General Obregon.

WHAT OF VILLA?

No mention was made of orders to Villa, but a brigade has occupied Aguila. Carranza's telegram spoke of the occupation of that city by Constitutionalists, but did not say who was in command.

Luis Cabrera and Francisco Iglesias Calderon, two prominent Constitutionalists, who have been here for several weeks, looking after the interests of General Carranza, have gone to Saltillo to meet their chief. Cabrera is expected to become minister of finance and Calderon will be minister of foreign relations when Carranza takes office.

Woman Finds Mysterious Weapon In Room of Discharged Maid.

A mysterious metal box with a percussion cap at either end was found by Mrs. Sarah P. Lemon, 5479 Telegraph avenue, in the room of a maid whom she had discharged after having difficulties with the woman some time ago.

The small cylindrical box, which is believed to contain explosives, was turned over to the police today by Mrs. Lemon, with a request that they make an investigation of how it came to be placed in her home.

The little metal cylinder was found on the bureau in the maid's room. It is a brass tube with a cap at either end set into the metal with solder. The percussion caps are of the kind used with heavy shotgun cartridges. The brass tube is about one and a half inches in diameter and two and seven-eighths inches in length. It is Oakland Businessmen Unite Behind Annexation Amendment Plan.

Sounding a call to arms in defense of Alameda county's integrity, citizens of Oakland, at a meeting last night in the Chamber of Commerce building, started an active campaign for the amendment petition with which the east bay cities, and the state at large, will combat San Francisco's plot to invade this side of the bay. As a result of the meeting a central executive campaign committee, which this morning drew up plans for the campaign, was ap-

Two Fires Start Near Same Time; Seven Horses Perish

Chief of Police Petersen, District Attorney Hynes and Captain of Inspectors Agnew late this afternoon went into conference on last night's incendiary fires.

Confirming the theory that both of last night's incendiary fires were started by the same man, the police this afternoon unearthed a second infernal machine in the debris of the Joaquin stables in Second street. Under instructions from Inspector Richard McSorley, a gang of workmen tore out hay and the burnt bodies of the horses; under a heap of refuse near the door farthest away from the house they found the remains of a box which contained electric batteries, spark coil and a can containing gasoline-soaked cotton waste and a clock similar to the one which had been placed in the Sterling Showcase Company. The clock was set for 1:30 a. m.

Two fires, both believed to be of incendiary origin, occurred early this morning, one at the Sterling Showcase Company's shop, 377 Fifth street, and the other at the stables of August Joaquin, 155 Second street. At the former place an infernal machine equipped with three dry batteries, a magneto, sparking apparatus, a small clock and a gasoline torch was found by Assistant Fire Chief E. Whitehead. The condition of the device showed that the machine had worked perfectly in starting the flames.

The fires apparently started at about the same time and it is thought there may have been some connection between the two. Two years ago an infernal device of very nearly the same construction as that found at the Sterling Showcase Company's shop was found in the Joaquin barn in Second street. It was set for the same hour as the machine found this morning.

Mrs. Joaquin was alone in the house in front of the barn when the fire broke out this morning and with the greatest difficulty succeeded in rescuing her five children. The first to awaken in the Joaquin home was Mary Joaquin, 16 years of age, who

Guy C. Earl Registers Name as Republican

Guy C. Earl, who at the last campaign was hailed as one of the strongest of Governor Johnson's supporters, today registered as a Republican at the county clerk's office. Earl, who is a regent of the State University and a noted attorney, has been pointed to Progressive leaders as one of their mainstays, and his registration as a Republican was one of the sensations of the courthouse today.

Earl made out his own registration blank.

REPUBLICANS, REGISTER! LAST CHANCE SATURDAY

Saturday is the last day on which you may register for the primary election. Get on the Great Register and get on as a Republican voter. Make certain that you are correctly registered, if already you have performed this duty.

2500 Republicans were registered illegally as Progressives. He investigated more than 8000 registrations. In this number he found 2390 Republicans deprived of their right to vote in their party primary.

Every person who is not registered, or is not certain he is rightly registered, should go at once to the County Clerk's office. It will be too late to do so after Saturday.

SLAYER OF M. CALMETTE IS ILL

Determined, Mme. Caillaux, Sits in Court Amid Bickering.

PARIS, July 22.—Indice Louis Al-banel's court in the Palace of Justice, where Mme. Caillaux, wife of the former premier, is undergoing trial for the murder on March 16 of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, was as crowded as ever when the fourth day of the trial opened.

people had come to see Joseph Caillaux confronted, according to the practice of the French courts, with former Premier Louis Barthou, who had been subpoenaed as a witness.

The testimony was to be concluded today with the evidence of M. Bar-thou and of Mme. Berthe Gueydan, the first wife of M. Caillaux, but before they were due to come to the stand half a dozen other witnesses of lesser importance were to testify.

The arguments of the prosecution and of Fernand Labori, counsel for the defense, would, it was announced, probably begin late in the day.

HER CALM ENFORCED.
Madame Caillaux took her place in the prisoners' enclosure punctually at noon. She carried in her right hand a little vial of smelling salts and a notebook.

Ten minutes afterward the red-robed judges filed in and an expectant hush fell over the crowded masses in the courtroom. Here and there a Japanese paper fan gave a striking note of color to the scene.

Joseph Caillaux, his friend, Pascal Coccardi, had visited the prisoner before the hearing began. They found that the long strain was beginning to tell on her and that she felt exhausted and ill, but she showed strong determination to face her ordeal with calmness.

CONTRADICTS WITNESS.
Gaston Dreyfus, a banker and a friend of the murdered editor, came to the stand and testified that the scientist, Paul Painleve, who had yesterday testified that M. Dreyfus had told him the Figaro was going to publish a number of private letters, must have misunderstood him.

He referred to the lobby of the Chamber of Deputies, when it was stated that letters shortly would be published.

"LETTERS WERE STOLEN."
Francis Desclaux, chief private secretary of M. Caillaux when Minister of Finance, declared that Andre Vervoor, editor of the Paris Journal, came to him and told him Mme. Caillaux had proposed to him to publish two letters which she produced. He had, he said, informed M. Caillaux of this and he exclaimed:

"But those are letters which were stolen from me. I hope no newspaper man can be found to publish them."

The rapid succession of witnesses was interrupted by the confrontation of Gaston Dreyfus and Paul Painleve, both of whom maintained the accuracy of their depositions with considerable heat.

Amid much murmuring among the public, Judge Albaladeu ended the incident by saving the papers made a case for himself as to the accuracy of the evidence.

WOMAN VS. WOMAN.
Mme. Gueydan, a slender woman of medium height, then came to court. She was dressed simply in black and wore a small blue hat with blue feathers. She looked to be 35 or 36 years old. Her face was drawn in tragic lines, her black eyes showing from deep sockets in her wasted cheeks. She seemed ill but she walked with calm dignity past her former husband, standing in front of the judges and the jury. The witness asked if she might refer to her notes, but the request was refused by the judge.

There have been so many lies told, said Mme. Gueydan, that a reconciliation over something and the letters were burned. Will you explain?"

Mme. Gueydan. "The first letter which appeared—do you know who gave that to me? M. Caillaux. He did it at the Ministry of Finance in 1908."

The judge then himself addressed the witness, saying questioningly in order to give her a start:

"Disagreements arose in your home?"

"There were no disagreements," she answered.

"Our domestic life was tender. No one knows. Not even you, Mr. President, and absolutely no one knows about this affair."

she said. "It is nevertheless charming of Oakland people to manifest an interest in my work. Apparently the stories of my adventures have traveled far. Among the reams of correspondence that has reached me are communications from Canada and all parts of the United States."

Miss Burr did not think very well of going to Oakland, it seemed, for she attempted to avoid the direct issue, pleading engagements would keep her occupied in and around Los Angeles for some days. Her distinction to accept the challenge issued by THE TRIBUNE gave rise to the rumor that she was somewhat dubious of long maintaining a successful incognito in a city the size of Oakland. "The Girl With the Pink Mask" evidently resented this report, for later in the day she denied the rumor.

"If I go to Oakland," she said, "I do not apprehend much difficulty in evading capture for several days."

This afternoon Miss Burr promised to wire THE TRIBUNE a definite answer to the challenge late today or early tomorrow morning.

GIVES DEMONSTRATION.
Miss Burr, the pretty young woman who recently defied capture in the principal cities of the east and west, is now in San Francisco.

where a large reward was placed on her dainty head by the big metropolitan dailies, early today gave a most remarkable demonstration for the benefit of several press correspondents gathered to test her boasted ability of concealing her identity. Her success was startling in its dramatic effect.

Miss Burr chatted entertainingly with the members of the committee for fifteen minutes, giving everyone an opportunity to become familiar with her appearance, mannerisms and voice inflection. The most striking characteristic about Miss Burr's appearance is her great big blue eyes, which glint with life and vim. She is a quick-witted young woman, nervous and nimble as a cat. Her personality appeared so distinctive that it seemed to the keenly watching reporters that it would be impossible for her to outwit them.

Shortly she left the room, telling the reporters that she was going to a change in her costume. Within ten minutes the committee received a telephone call from Miss Burr. In agitated tones she informed them that the trunks containing her costumes, which were to have been delivered at the hotel, failed to arrive.

NOTHING TO WEAR.
"I don't know what to do," Miss Burr telephoned indignantly. "I am so very sorry and I do not see—"

Here the telephone connection seemed cut off. One of the reporters was shouting into the transmitter when an unexpected interruption came.

A wrinkled old Irish woman, evidently the janitress of the building, walked into the room with a bucket of soapy water in either hand and mop over her arm.

"Arrah, you'll have to move," she said. "It's past clostin' time now, and I've got me offices to clean and I can't be waitin' around for a lot of cigarette smoking young min who ought to be home long ago."

"Oh, ho! So it's Bonnie Burr, is it?" said the washerwoman in a scorn. "Do you think I can be lettin' my Terrence come home to a cold meal this evenin' just because I've had to wait for you young upstarts to meet Bonnie Burr? An' sure an' who is this Bonnie Burr you are talkin' about? I'll warrant she's a corker or she wouldn't be takin' up with the likes o' you. So it's Bonnie Burr, is it? Well, g'wan now one of you!"

The garrulous old woman raised her mop in battle menace and the reporters fled. In the hallway they clustered into a bewildered group, when suddenly they heard a merry twinkle of laughter from the office they had just left, and Miss Bonnie Burr, divested of wig and facial "make-up" but dressed in the costume of the Irish washerwoman, tripped lightly into the hallway.

Stratton Endorsed as Appellate Judge by Leaders of Bar

One hundred and forty-eight members of the Alameda county bar have endorsed an endorsement of Frederick S. Stratton as a candidate for justice of the Appellate court, first district, short term.

acceptable. If they are acceptable they will be given full powers by the Carbalau government to make arrangements with Carranza delegates. If not acceptable, other delegates will be appointed. A reply is expected today.

Officially expected to see the agreement perfected within the next three or four days.

MEXICO CITY, July 23.—President Carranza informed the Brazilian minister last night that an arrangement had been reached whereby the government would be held between delegates representing the government and General Carranza with the view of providing for a peaceful transfer of power.

The president wired the Carranza representatives in the United States asking if the Mexican delegates to the recent peace conference at Niagara would be at Mme. Caillaux who, however did not look at him.

Mme. Gueydan: "I had never suspected that my husband had a mistress. I first knew it when he threw himself at my knees and asked my pardon. He humbled himself and I pardoned him but the day after he returned to this person."

"I did not cease to believe his lying talk. I believed that the evil surrounding my home had gone, for I thought I saw the bottom of his heart in his tears."

SHE DEFIES LABOR.
"You are here to accuse," interposed Madame Labori. "You will find nothing but courtesy and deference for counsel if your role is simply that of a witness. But if you came here to accuse then you will find me a defender of my client."

Mme. Gueydan. "If you have spoken of me, M. Caillaux, he will have told you that I have courage."

This was spoken in a challenging tone and called for the "bravos" from the spectators, whose sympathy she seemed to have from the moment she entered the courtroom.

The judge then himself addressed the witness, saying questioningly in order to give her a start:

"Disagreements arose in your home?"

been determined at the time he issued his statement. It was said, however, that it would be for a substantial sum.

The suit will be brought in the Supreme court, Barnes announced, within a few days.

"I have nothing whatever to say in reply to Mr. Roosevelt's diatribe, except that it lacks dignity, self-restraint and is without foundation," reads Barnes' statement. "When an issue of such prominence one has but one of three courses. To submit to the aspersion; to enter into an unseemly personal controversy, or to appeal to the courts, in order to enable that person who utters the libel an opportunity to produce legal evidence."

In New York state we see at its worst the development of the system of big-business rule. The rise and come of this system is necessarily that invisible government which the Progressive party was in large measure founded to oppose. It is impossible to secure the economic, social and industrial reforms to which we are pledged until this invisible government of the part bosses working through the alliance between crooked business and crooked politics, is rooted out of our governmental system."

BARNES RETORTS.
Chairman William Barnes of the Republican state committee today made the following statement regarding former Senator Harvey D. Finck's announced plan to run for governor at the Republican primaries:

"The question which the enrolled Republicans of this state must determine on the 28th of September is whether they are to select the Republican candidate for governor from the list of names to be placed in the ballot box, or whether they are to permit Roosevelt to select them. That is the real boss issue."

CARRANZA IS LENIENT.
VICTORIA, Mexico, July 23, via Laredo, Texas, July 23.—General Carranza today advocated leniency in "treatment of the conquered by the victorious Constitutionalists." His statement was made in a speech at a banquet tendered by Victoria citizens.

Shot in Midst of Political Exchange
COLUMBIA, S. C., July 23.—Dr. J. H. McIntosh, who has figured in a political exchange with Governor Cole Blaise, was shot today by an unidentified assailant. The wound is not dangerous. Blaise had announced that when he spoke in Columbia today he would call Dr. McIntosh to the platform to confront him with certain statements.

Dr. McIntosh says his assailant, after shooting, made off, shouting: "Now you won't bother Cole!"

Bloodhounds have failed to pick up a trail of the assassin, and the country have been thrown into a commotion over the affair. At the capital a statement was issued saying Blaise regretted the affair and that the governor's office would lend all possible aid for the capture of the assassin.

Erratic Millionaire Being Held in Jail
GULFPORT, Miss., July 23.—Chas. E. Torrey, reputed to be a millionaire resident of Los Angeles, Cal., is in jail here today pending further investigation into his erratic actions at two hotels here late yesterday. He is held temporarily on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Torrey's actions in his apartments at a hotel caused the management to send for a physician. Later, Torrey remonstrated to the hotel management against his charges for apartments, while trying to enter the private apartments of the manager of another hotel.

Torrey has been in Gulfport several months, taking options on farming lands. Members of his family have not been summoned.

Slight Hope of R. R. Mediators Agreeing hope for settlement of the dispute between railroad managers and engineers of western and southern under mediation in Chicago, is held out in a telegram from Chicago, received here today by local officials of the engineers. "Prospects settlement unfavorable," the telegram reads. "We may leave here any day. Mediators suggest arbitration. We decline."

Help! Army Invades N. Y.; It's Army Worm
NEW YORK, July 23.—The army worm has descended upon New York, doing heavy damage to lawns in Harlem. Within the last two days the worm extended its operations to parts of Brooklyn and destroyed lawns on many large estates. In a single night the worms did considerable damage to plants and flowers. College Point, Whitestone, Jamaica and Newtown have been invaded. Appeals have been sent to Washington asking what methods can be used to kill them.

Thousands of the pests made their appearance yesterday in Bayonne, N. J., and other towns and did much damage to lawns, flowers and vegetable gardens and last night many persons were out fighting the worms by firelight.

Reptiles and Barrel of Bugs, Ship's Cargo
NEW ORLEANS, July 23.—Four snakes, 10 tarantulas, 10 lizards, 10 roaches to almost fill a barrel and "bed bugs" galore, formed part of the cargo of a freight vessel sailing tropical seas and which was fumigated here yesterday in connection with the fight against bubonic plague. Two of the snakes were boa-constrictors more than five feet long. The others were of a harmless Central American variety.

FORMER OAKLAND RACING MAN DIES

married Hull McClaughry, a postoffice clerk, and now the central figure in the long series of troubles leading to a divorce, the final decree of which is now pending in the Alameda county Superior Court. Mrs. McClaughry is now on her way home from Europe and is expected to gain her final decree at that time, although her friends state that the fact that on her settling a large sum of money on her former husband, may still further delay this action. The final decree was due July 10.

Baldwin, the former husband of Mrs. McClaughry, left the bay region shortly after the divorce which separated him from his cousin and became owner of the hotel in Los Angeles where he died. He was stricken with paralysis and had been ill for four days. He was 48 years of age.

An elaborate funeral is being planned in Los Angeles and many of the pioneer sporting men of the state are to attend the obsequies. Several noted horse breeders of the East have sent messages of condolence to the family.

Stolen Ride Is Fatal; He Dies Under Train

NILES, July 23.—Frank Herrington, 25 years of age, of Salinas was cut to pieces by a freight train at Niles this morning when he fell from the back of a car in the middle of the train and was dragged for 200 yards. The train crew were unaware of the tragedy.

A Gamble, who was driving a buggy at the Alameda creek bridge, saw Herrington hanging under the train and a short distance further along the track came upon the mutilated remains. Herrington was beating his way from Salinas to San Jose and climbed on a San Jose freight train which left Niles at 9:30 o'clock this morning. He had lost his hold on the beam and pitched to his death under the wheels. He was seen in Niles this morning and two men who came into town say he was in Sacramento yesterday. Herrington's people, it is understood, live in Salinas. The remains are at the Niles morgue.

Will Tour Central and South America
NEW YORK, July 23.—Six American college students will leave New York Saturday on board the steamship Vauban to spend three months touring Central and South America. Their expenses are to be paid by the Chilean government and the Carnegie Endowment for International Conciliation.

Among the members of the party is John Heath, a student of Leland Stanford University, Palo Alto, Cal. The party will visit at Bahia, Rio Janeiro and Santos, and, arriving at Buenos Aires, will cross to Santiago, where the fourth biennial international congress of students will be held from September 6 to 14. They will return by way of Panama.

Petition Was Altered, Is Candidate's Plea
SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—As the result of the expose of alleged juggling with petitions, Charles James Powers, contractor and candidate for senator in the 24th district, obtained from the supreme court this morning an order preventing Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan from placing on the ballot the name of Charles A. Powers.

The writ was made returnable tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, when the matter will be thrashed out. Stafford claims that his candidate, Powers, is running on the Democratic ticket, and Larry Flaherty is the Progressive candidate. It is alleged a petition was circulated in behalf of Flaherty for the Republican nomination in addition and at the last moment the name of Charles A. Powers was written in.

J. S. Swineheart and Walter Smith as well as all the candidates concerned, have been subpoenaed to appear before supreme court.

According to Stafford the substitution of Charles A. Powers was done to influence the election.

Cracksmen Blow Open Safe; Posse Pursues
MARTINEZ, July 23.—A gang of masked bandits blew open the safe in the postoffice at Danville, Contra Costa county, at an early hour this morning and escaped with $500 in cash and $500 in stamps. They made their getaway in an automobile, which it is believed was also stolen.

The people of the town were aroused by the explosion, but the cracksmen succeeded in making their escape unmolested. It is believed there were five of them.

Sheriff Veale set out a search of the robbers as soon as his office was notified and a posse of officers is now pursuing them.

The postoffice inspector of San Francisco was notified and Deputy W. I. Madera has been

EAT POULTRY FORBIDDEN TO BE SOLD AS FOOD

SACRAMENTO, July 23.—A report from Inspectors H. A. Robins and M. O. Alexander to Dr. Donald H. Currie of the State Board of Health yesterday sets forth that consumers of poultry in San Francisco were in most instances eating fowls forbidden to be sold as food by the regulations of the food storage act. The report says in part:

"We made an inspection of poultry in different parts of San Francisco and in all instances found the same method of handling the birds. They are bought by the retail merchant from the wholesaler in a frozen condition. The poultry is placed in a temperature of between 40 and 50 degrees, and there takes on the appearance of a freshly killed chicken. We found some of the retailers returned the thawed birds after retaining them for seven days."

HOOKS FOR LIFEBOATS.
Harry A. Attfield of Berkeley has secured a patent upon improvements in hooks for lifeboats. He received the patent June 23, 1914, having filed his application on December 20, 1913. In his specification of letters patent he made the following declaration: "A quickly releasing hook, comprising a hanger having one end and an aperture portion, parallel sides unequal in length, the longer side being curved and the shorter side being straight, a knuckle pivoted in said end and having a curved flange adapted to rest on the inner surface of said inwardly bent portion, a block slidable between said sides and having a shoulder, the outer end of the knuckle having a recess to engage said shoulder, a spring compressed between the upper end of the slide block and the hanger, front and rear plates secured to said hanger, the front plate having a longitudinal slot."

THROWN FROM DISC.
Ida Levin, cashier for an Oakland store, was painfully injured by a fall from a whirling disk at a local park. She was thrown from the disc to the wall. She sustained a badly strained hand and a fractured left thumb as a result of the accident, and was treated at the emergency hospital.

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.
"Indigestion and all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin and lackluster, and lacking in that vital energy which comes from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been subjected to indigestion, I have compiled a list of foods which may be eaten, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bismarck magnesium is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach, but it neutralizes the acidity of the food contents, and thus removes the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining. It does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all this trouble. Get a little bismarck magnesium from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bismarck magnesium as directed above, and see if I'm

NOTED SPEAKERS ARE HEARD BY STUDENTS

On Tuesday afternoon the Federated School of Missions listened to an address by Mrs. Eugenia St. John of Kansas, national evangelist and lecturer of the W. C. T. U. The coming vote on state-wide prohibition is the cause of the attention paid to the temperance movement on the Federated School's program this year.

At the evening session of the Federated School the address was by Rev. J. Hummel, for ten years Presbyterian missionary in the Kameroun country, on the Gulf of Guinea in West Africa.

According to the speaker there are three main things that account for the backwardness of Africa: 1. Inaccessibility. In a coast line of 5000 miles there are only two or three harbors. Goods have to be landed in surf boats. Fifteen years ago every village was barricaded. There was only one path between villages, and at each end of the path a house with peep-holes was set across it. Every fifteen or twenty miles there was a change of language. 2. A second obstacle was feudalism. If an African stubbed his toe on a rock or a root, he hunted for something to offer up to the spirit of the rock or root. The African believed there was a spirit in a chair, a table, a book.

WOULDN'T NAME FRIEND WHO PUNCHED HIS NOSE

P. Finney, a laborer, reported to Dr. E. B. Dowdle at the Emergency Hospital this morning with a badly smashed nose. He said he was punched in the nose by a friend, but he wouldn't name the friend. The organ spoke for itself, but the doctor was curious to know how it happened.

"A friend of mine punched me," declared the man.

"A friend?" inquired the doctor. "That's a funny kind of a friend."

"Well, he is my friend, and I'm not going to tell his name," declared the man. "If I didn't say he was my friend, he might punch me again, and besides—what's a broken nose among friends?"

The hospital record concludes with a description of ice packs and bandages used in treatment.

500 MILES IN ROWBOAT.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, July 23.—William Moore, a merchant and trader of Fort Yukon, completed today a 500-mile trip in a rowboat from the Porcupine river to Fort Gibbon to have his leg amputated. Moore was regaining an engine in a small steamboat on the Porcupine river ten days ago when the machinery started, mangle both of his legs. He was placed in a rowboat and rushed 500 miles down the river to Fort Gibbon, where Captain Pierson, the post surgeon, amputated the injured man's legs immediately on his arrival today. Captain Pierson believes Moore will recover.

FIRE DEVASTATES TOWN.

NORTHPORT, Wash., July 23.—Two-thirds of the business district of Northport was destroyed by fire yesterday, entailing a loss of $50,000. The blaze started in an unoccupied building and spread rapidly despite the efforts of volunteer firemen aided by scores of townspeople acting as bucket brigades. Late last night the fire was under control, but fears were expressed that if a wind should arise the greater part of the town would be destroyed.

EDITOR FIGHTS DUEL.

HAVANA, July 23.—A duel was fought yesterday by Leon M. Ichaso, one of the editors of El Diario de la Marina, and Raoul Nunez, brother of the secretary of sanitation. Nunez was wounded in the arm. The duel was the outcome of an article published by the paper censuring the sanitary department in connection with the bubonic plague.

NEWSBOY STARTS PAPER TO BE "NEWSIES" ORGAN

"Pesty" Ryan Will Issue Newsboys' Rounder for Uplift

Every little "newsie" will express a meaning of his own in a ready publication, which will be edited for his benefit by "Pesty" Ryan, for eighteen years a newsboy on the Pacific Coast and for many years a distributor of the Quiltes in Oakland and the best cities. The chief contributors to the journal will be the newsboys of the Pacific Coast, who have been invited to write articles for the weekly, which will be called "The Newsboys' Rounder," and it will circulate on the Pacific Coast. It will contain accounts of the events that appeal to the newsboys, who will have the privilege of voicing their opinion upon athletic matters and topics of the hour in that bulletin, which will contain four pages and will sell for three cents per copy. In response to a demand from the newsboys, "Pesty" declared that he has started the weekly and he owes his inspiration to the little fellows who peddle their papers at the street corners. "Pesty" is Edward Ryan, son of Mrs. Alice Courtmarche of this city, is a native of San Francisco and is a graduate of the Franklin grammar school. He is 25 years of age and has been a "newsie" since he was seven years of age. He is ambitious to improve the condition of the newsboys on the Pacific Coast and is eager to build a clubhouse here for them. "Pesty" expects to elevate the boys by means of the "newsie" and to awaken their interest in the higher callings and he believes that the Newsboys' Rounder will be the only paper on the coast devoted exclusively to the newsboys' affairs. It will be instrumental in creating a new life among the lads. The first edition will appear next Tuesday afternoon.

AT the SHOW SHOPS

"Nervous!" says Yvette, the "whirlwind violinist," star of the Orpheum this week. She's been told that women really do have the things done to them that are shown in the beauty shop playlet that heads the bill. More than that, she found that it is really being done on the stage. That's what Miss Yvette says. It seems that when Elizabeth Jordan wrote the play she had been through a dozen beauty parlors and the expose is complete.

The sketch, William A. Brady's first entrance into vaudeville, was taken from Miss Jordan's play, "The Lady from Oklahoma," and adapted to vaudeville use. Miss Jean Adair, who plays the heroine and is supposed to come in humbly and no one would have had to study for weeks to get the "homely" makeup.

Director Leon Kovatsky has been assisting him in his work.

Britt, who is the musical harmonica player who uses his little instrument as a musical violin, has also taken an interest in the Chinese prince's venture and has furnished several songs for the work.

Kramer and Morton, "Black Pests," with their burnt cork on, ventured in to street appearance and fooled even the manager of the theater. Paul La Croix, the Australian, and his assistant finally "spotted" them.

PANTAGES

Miss Williams and Teddy McNamara, the two cleverest dancers, are scoring the biggest success of their Pantages engagement in the present act, "The Guide of Monte Carlo."

Charles Kenna, the "street fakir," veteran of vaudeville, and maker of a laugh a minute, says he never saw a "wild" dance like the one he is presenting. The rest of the Pantages bill agrees.

Considerable interest is taken in this work by the players in John Zandoff, the vaudeville process of Mrs. Pantages, who is making her first bow to the public in Oakland. Miss Helen Bradford, her accompanist, also an Oakland girl, comes in for her share of the interest, and a striking success for the two young women is predicted.

The Los Angeles 44 Club quartet is also on the bill. Leona Guernsey, the contralto, famed opera star, is another member of the merry Oakland girls—and their music.

Georgia Cooper and Landers Stevens are dressing in another act, for use of their present Pantages bill.

The Karpovskis Brothers, acrobats on the bill this week, are spending their spare time looking over Oakland's playgrounds. Al Johnson's brother, Harry, is coming next week and also Lavigne Pollard, another of the clever Australian comedians.

COLUMBIA

Terry Lambor, the stage electrician at the Columbia, is worth, and mischievous Vilma Stroh is responsible. She dangled Terry with a powder puff—a little thing in the way of a trick—and he was in a stage in a minute, having been impressed into service, and many of his friends and admirers were looking on. Jack and Jane giggled from the wings and when Ben Dillon saw Terry it almost broke up his scene. Will King, the comedian, said:

"The Belle of Oakland," this week's Columbia offering, has its troubles for Jack and Jane. Jack is a comedian and George Spaulding and Anita Marshall have invented a new dance, and they're going to spring it in a show in the near future. Jack and Jane are looking forward to introduce Dillon and King's new leading man, Frank Harrington.

Jack and Jane this week completed the fourth appearance in musical comedy. It was celebrated by the company and Jack received congratulations from many of his friends in the theatrical realm.

IDORA

Invitations have been sent out for a grand ball to open the Idora de dance at Idora Park tomorrow night, when the old skating rink has been transformed into a great dance pavilion open to the public and devoted to the most popular amusement of the people in general. Modeled upon the big dance pavilions of the East, where all classes of society are welcomed and enjoy modern dancing to good music under pleasant conditions, the Idora de dance will be carefully supervised and will at the same time permit the pleasure of dancing under wholesome and pleasing auspices.

The big pavilion is well ventilated. It has been renovated and decorated to bring it into conformity with its new name and purpose. The floor has been laid and polished, and an orchestra of eight pieces will supply good music afternoons and evenings. It is planned that provision will be made for small dancing parties, small booths and special rates being made for them.

Ferris Hartman and Jack Raines have performed wonders this week in the presentation of "The Red Mill," one of the big Montgomery and Successes of New York. In the canopied amphitheatre at Idora.

The Kansans in California are told to look for the big sunflower sign near the beach and to enter the Idora de dance already been sent out by the entertainment committee, and read as follows: "The Kansans in California will give a picnic on Sunday, July 26, at the beach. On the beach at the end of the MacArthur car line. 'Bring your friends and neighbors along a good time is assured for all that come.' The order that nobody may lose himself, the sunflower sign will afford guidance."

HELLMAN RETURNS: IS PROPHET OF PROSPERITY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—In the best of health and in good spirits, W. Hellman, president of the Wells Fargo-Nevada National Bank and the Union Trust Company, and one of the financial figures of the Pacific coast, returned to San Francisco yesterday from one of his regular European trips. On his arrival he was much more inclined to speak of the future of the Panama-Pacific Exposition than he was to talk of financial affairs. He is a firm believer that both Germany and Great Britain will have adequate representation at the exposition in spite of the unfavorable position taken by the governments of those nations.

"My information is that the large manufacturers and the public spirited men of both countries will see to it that these nations have displays which will in every way be creditable," said he. "The British and German people are aroused, and with this in mind, the lack of co-operation by the governments officially is not so serious as it might seem to be. The financial conditions in Europe are somewhat strained, and the same is true of the eastern part of the United States. I do not think that any part of Europe or America has better prospects than we have right here in California. We cannot expect a great change for the better until the new crops are harvested and sold."

PROSECUTE STANDARD OIL.

NEW YORK, July 23.—For alleged violation of one of the "seven sister" laws of New Jersey, enacted during Woodrow Wilson's governorship, a joint tenant issued a subpoena yesterday against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, on application of the Crew Levick Oil Company.

The charge made is under-selling the cost price of gasoline to such competition. All the directors of the defendant company are liable to a three-year sentence in case of conviction.

BIG MILLS AND ROGERS' ESTATES APPRAISED

NEW YORK, July 23.—Darius Ogden Mills, the banker and philanthropist, who died January 3, 1910, left an estate of the net value of $35,123,015, according to the appraisal filed yesterday in the transfer tax office of the Surrogate's Court. Under the terms of the will the estate passes as follows: Mrs. Elizabeth M. Reid, daughter, $17,361,507; Ogden Mills, son, $17,361,507. The appraiser exempted from taxation gifts of $1,000,000 each to Ogden Mills and Mrs. Reid, which were given to them in December, a short time before the decedent's death.

The late Henry H. Rogers, Standard Oil millionaire, left an estate of $49,009,099 in New York state, according to official appraisal filed yesterday. The net value of the Rogers estate is appraised at $40,836,990.

GUARDSMEN CHANGE PLANS.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The National Guard, it was decided yesterday, will not go to Iowa for its camp drill this year, but will hold a joint maneuver camp with a company or two of regular army troops at Ashland, Neb., August 27 to September 1. The added expense of going to Iowa was given as the chief reason for the change in plans.

Counterfeits.

Read what one of the GREATEST NEWSPAPERS IN AMERICA has to say on this subject:

"The manufacturers of Castoria have been compelled to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to familiarize the public with the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. This has been necessitated by reason of pirates counterfeiting the Castoria trademark. This counterfeiting is a crime not only against the proprietors of Castoria, but against the growing generation. All persons should be careful to see that Castoria bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, if they would guard the health of their children. Parents, and mothers in particular, ought to carefully examine the Castoria advertisements which have been appearing in this paper, and to remember that the wrapper of every bottle of genuine Castoria bears the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, under whose supervision it has been manufactured continuously for over thirty years.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Letters from Prominent Druggists addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Conger Bros. of St. Paul, Minn., say: "Fletcher's Castoria is certainly full of merit and worthy of recommendation."

C. G. A. Loder, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "For 20 years we have sold Fletcher's Castoria and are pleased to state that it has given universal satisfaction."

The Scholtz Drug Co., of Denver, Colo., says: "Fletcher's Castoria has surely become a household word. Seemingly every family where there are children uses it."

Hoagland & Mansfield, of Boston, Mass., say: "We have nothing but good to say about your Castoria and we do not hesitate to give it our unqualified endorsement."

Riker's Drug Stores, of New York City, say: "Fletcher's Castoria is one of the oldest and most popular preparations in our stores. We have nothing but good to say about it."

Wolf-Wilson Drug Co., of St. Louis, Mo., says: "Of the thousands of patent medicines for which we have demand there are a very few of them that we can conscientiously recommend and your Castoria is included in this few."

D. R. Dyche & Co., of Chicago, Ill., say: "The increasing demand for your Castoria shows that a discriminating public is not slow to seek out a remedy of merit and once convinced that it does all and even more than claimed they do not hesitate to recommend it to their friends."

The Owl Drug Co., of San Francisco, Cal., says: "We have always been a believer in the 'original man protection' and have been particular never to sell anything but the genuine and original Castoria (Fletcher's). We have many calls every day for this article from people who say they would not be without it in their homes."

Eddie Miller Blooms as Bantam Bear-Cat in Sensational Ten-Round Duel

KNOCKED DOWN FOR NINE IN FIRST ROUND, KID MILLER WINS

San Francisco Bantam Drives
Adherents Crazy With a Great Showing.

(BY THE TIMEKEEPER.)

before he had got started, Eddie Miller, San Francisco's wonderful little bantam, came back sensationally at the West Oakland club last night, fought sturdy Roy Moore off his feet, and took a clean-cut, undisputed victory in the most spectacular struggle between bantams the writer has ever seen.

For speed, endurance, clean hitting and defense, the Miller-Moore bout could hardly be equaled. It was all that had been advertised and then some. How two such little fellows could stand up for ten rounds under the terrific strain was not set out in the program, but the writer was not alone in taking as many wallop to the chin as were exchanged last night was more than many a hardened fighter could understand. At the conclusion of the fight the consensus of opinion was that Miller was fit to send against any man his weight in the world including Baltimore Kid Williams, Champion Johnny Coulton or Eddie Campbell. No credit can be taken away from Roy Moore for the sturdy little fighter came within a second of winning the fight before he had been in the ring a minute and he was dangerous right up to the final going, when with blood streaming from his face he tore after his elusive opponent, whaling away desperately with both hands. Miller was Moore's master at every department of the game and took every round except the first. He kept his stinging straight left jabbing into Moore's face, alternated with right cross to the jaw and planted terrific left hooks into his opponent's stomach.

Miller's speed enabled him to beat Moore to the punch and get back out of harm's way. Neither boy did any clinching or holding.

They danced in and out like sewing machine needles; every time they came together the slower the fight went. It was difficult to count them. Referee Irwin's decision was the only one, though Charley Claver, of course, didn't think so.

The boys came together cautiously in the first round, but Moore very soon opened up and rushed Eddie to the ropes. Near the end of the round Roy landed two right hooks to the body, which put Miller down for the count nine. Eddie came up pretty groggy, but managed to last the round. When they returned for the next round Moore was overcautious and allowed himself to be made a mark for Miller's straight left. Miller also displayed a good right to the midsection, taking the second and third asides. In the fourth Miller continued to do his work effectively from a distance, but his lead was over-ruled when Moore rocked him with a right to the jaw as the bell rang.

The fifth and sixth rounds boys fighting hard, and staggering each other, Miller hitting frequently but Moore effectively. The sixth was easily the fastest round of the bout, both boys stepping in and out, and scoring frequently. Moore landed a straight left effectively, but Miller had the better of the round.

Increasing his lead in the next two rounds, Miller made a mark for Miller's straight left. Miller also displayed a good right to the midsection, taking the second and third asides. In the fourth Miller continued to do his work effectively from a distance, but his lead was over-ruled when Moore rocked him with a right to the jaw as the bell rang.

Cartwright took Charley O'Leary's place at third yesterday, as the latter was suffering from a sore leg.

Rodgers and Derrick took two bases apiece off the throwing of Catcher Schmidt.

Out of four times at bat, Derrick got three safeties, one of them going for a homer.

Fitzgerald made a lucky home run in the first. Lober misjudged the ball and it took a lucky bound into the bleachers.

The Seal fans had a chance to see McCredie's entire pitching staff in the sixth. Martindale was waving and Walter trotted out the whole family to warm up.

It was announced yesterday that a double header would be played at Ewing Coliseum, the first starting at 1:45 p. m.

Bliff Schaller broke his bat in the first inning and was unable to hit the ball the balance of the game.

Rumor that there was to be a big shakeup in the Seal coop seems to have been dispelled by the fact that the Seal players are still playing like real champions right now.

Able ran into a hard batting rally in the third and fourth innings and was removed in favor of Manager Christian.

Oakland's one chance to score was in the fifth, when with Guest and Menzies on Mize hit a line drive to Bill Leard. A triple play! Leard to Borton to McCredie followed.

Tommy Quinlan let a single from Kane get by him and a grounder threw a line drive to the outfield. The offender was promptly removed from the grounds.

Manager Christian is some relief pitcher. Going in in the fifth with the Seal bases loaded, he pitched out the Seal manager allowed but three scattered hits for the rest of the game.

The feature of the Angel-Sacramento game was the continual argument between the players of both teams and Umpire Jack McCarthy.

The game was won in the tenth inning when Godeon scored on Brashear's sacrifice fly to Moran.

Williams allowed ten hits, one less than those allowed by Slim Love, who opposed him.

Eddie Johnson is hitting very well after his long absence from the game due to injury. He made three safeties off the delivery of Williams yesterday.

Eddie Collins has renewed his contract with the Markleins for a number of years, according to Connie Mack of the Athletics.

The Detroit Tigers have purchased Outfielder Willie Jacobson of the Chattanooga Southern Association.

Manager Maddox, manager of the Wichita club in the Western League, has been given his unconditional release.

The St. Louis Browns paid $2000 for the services of Tim Bowden of the Macon team.

Philadelphia made it eight straight by winning from Cleveland yesterday.

By taking a double header from St. Louis, Boston took its second place in the American League race yesterday.

Marquard held Herzog's men to two hits and won the game from Cincinnati, 4 to 1.

Calvo, the little Cuban with the Victoria club in the Northwest League made a home run, a two bagger and two singles out of four times to the plate against Ballard.

The New York Yankees have bought Player Kraft, the man over whom a strike was threatened, and will use him at first.

Outfielder William Jacobson has been bought from Chattanooga by the Detroit Tigers.

Tacoma is hitting a lively pace in the Northwest League. It won its eighth straight game yesterday.

McMAHON FAVORITE
OVER MILLER

Tom McMahon expresses confidence that he can put Charley Miller away in their bout tomorrow night at the Pavilion link but thinks he will have a hard time of it. Charley is not a fancy boxer, but always carries a kick and is game to the core. McMahon put the grand finale on the ring card at the Pavilion. McMahon and Miller have been going on for weeks ago, but the bout was over so soon that the fans did not get a satisfactory look at the eastern heavyweight. Jimmy Dime's heavy has opened a 10 to 5 favorite over the San Francisco man, but Miller's friends promise him the local win when the two enter the ring.

The return engagement between Joe Chip and Soldier Nelson will be a return engagement. These two middleweights put up a rattling good draw on the occasion of their last meeting.

Other bouts on the card are: Herb Brodie vs. Kid Exposito, 123 pounds; Kid Roma vs. Joe Kelly, 118 pounds; Frank Conway vs. Bob Smith, 123 pounds; Joe Ferro vs. Jack Burns, 124 pounds; Ed McLarney vs. Willie Costello, 123 pounds, and George Hand vs. Young White, 145 pounds.

Only one of the six Coast league managers has not actually participated in a game this season, and that one is Walter McCredie, whose team is the league leader. Walter still wears a uniform but his activities are confined to getting to the infield during practice and posing gracefully in the coaching box back of third. The Portland boss has never seen the need of introducing his name into the official score and apparently he has full control of the very natural desire to come back, which is in the breast of every player.

Tyler Christian, Del Howard, Happy Hogan, Harry Wolverton and even Pop Dillon can all be classed as playing managers. The Silver Fox who pilots the Angel crew has come to bat twice this season in the pinches, hitting safely on one occasion. This gives him a batting average of .300, and makes him the nominal leader of the Coast league bat brigade.

Tyler Christian's activities are those of a pinch pitcher. Rather than send in one of his best men when the game is lost, he will pick up his glove and take the hill himself. No situation is too perilous for Christian and the figures show that he has been successful in checking many a batting rally. A week ago today, Klawitter was ordered out of the game suddenly by Umpire Guthrie for the famous bat-slinging episode with Tommy Tennant.

No pitcher was warned up for the fray and whoever went in faced the possibility of being slaughtered before he could get his arm limbered up. Christian sent Killian to the warm up line and took the mound himself, holding the fort until Jack had warmed up sufficiently to go in with a fair chance. That's what makes Tyler popular with his men.

Wolverton, boss of the Sacramento Gray Wolves, has played in eight games this season, mostly in the role of pinch hitter, which has given him the respectable average of .300. Against the Oaks last night, Wolverton played second base for the last five rounds of a thirteen-inning game and showed the spryness of a three-year-old.

Del Howard has played in more games than any other player in the league. He has been a constant presence in the cost league family. At least three times a year Hogan admits he's "through," but always some emergency develops and the Venice leader buckles on the breast pad, dons mask and glove and goes gamely behind the bat. His latest feat was to catch Roy Hitt in that no-hit game against the Seals last Sunday, and they say Hap's catching had a good deal to do with Roy's box-work.

It would appear that the old boys are still there.

The difficulties which Sacramento and Los Angeles are experiencing right now with injured players and demoralized lineups recall the amazing string of misfortunes which the Oakland 1912 club encountered. No organization in this or any other league has suffered the bad luck which the Oaks experienced last season.

We were glancing over the scores of this time a year ago and finding how the lineup had to be changed every day for two weeks; how the players who were secured to bolster up the team later failed to pan out, or suffered some mishap; and how the club's bank roll was tapped again and again without any apparent result except a living hell for the Sacramento and Angel fans can look over the following casualty list of Oakland last year and consider themselves lucky.

ALAMEDA

MARKET PLEASES

Alameda Operators Well Satisfied With Present Conditions of Business.

ALAMEDA, July 23.—Local operators express themselves as satisfied with present conditions of their business. With the approaching close of the busy season they assert there has been observed a stronger tone to the real estate market. The number of inquiries at outside places is larger, and a greater number of offers to exchange properties for properties here have been received.

to rent is stronger than it has been in months.

Many of the offers to trade and exchange for property to sell have been made for property in the city of Alameda as a bathing resort is coming widely known and to this is attributed the demand for beach property.

M. A. Miller reports that he has sold pieces of property, involving the transfer of warrants of $3,000. These sales are negotiated through the city of Alameda.

SPARKS START FIRE.
ALAMEDA, July 23. — At 9 o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in the back yard on the corner of 12th and Central streets. The alarm was rung and the flames were soon extinguished with little damage. The origin of the blaze was from a bonfire which had been neglected.

The yard was filled with boxes, bins, empty cases and sawdust which became ignited by sparks from the fire.

VISITS RELATIVES.

Miss Helen Downe is a member of the house party which include Miss Marjorie Coogan, this week. Miss Coogan is returning from Lake Tahoe where she spent the last few weeks.

An interesting piece of news, which will come as a surprise to the friends of the late Mrs. Sigourney, is that she is now in the city.

The bride, who is a member of one of the pioneer families of the city is the daughter of George W. Hughes of Alameda county, California. She was married at San Rafael yesterday by Judge M. J. Gerrish of Mill Valley. The ceremony was performed by Judge M. J. Gerrish after which the couple came to this city where they were announced their marriage to all other members of the family. Mrs. A. B. Bell, a sister of the bride, also was present. She was married a few months ago. Both are daughters of pioneer residents of this city, Wood street being named for her father.

LOVE BANDIT IN

DARING HOLD-UP

Engages in Pistol Duel After Lining Up Customers and Robbing Saloon.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—Although the police believed that they had in custody the most formidable of all the saloon holdups, one of the most daring robberies of the series which has baffled the police took place at 2 o'clock this morning. With a blue bandana handkerchief covering his face, a lone highwayman entered the saloon of John Henne, Sixteenth street and Potrero avenue. After he had lined up all the customers, he engaged in a pistol duel which aroused the entire neighborhood and could plainly be heard at the Seventeenth street police station, five blocks away. When officers arrived he had escaped.

The banding and continued the revolver leveled and pointed at the proprietor to line up against the wall with the following customers: Albert Krebs, 1170 Alabama street; Brent Krebs, 223 Potrero avenue; Joseph Hill, 115 San Bruno avenue; and Charles Herne.

After he had taken $10 from the till he backed out attempting to escape. He was followed by the police and Krebs jumped behind the bar, borrowed Henne's gun and hurried to the door. The robber was standing across the street and Krebs opened fire. The culprit returned shot for shot until the guns of both were empty. He then fled east on Sixteenth street.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—While returning from an emergency call early this morning Dr. J. D. de Chantreaux, a physician, with offices in the Elkland-Guest building, was held up and robbed by two footpads. Dr. de Chantreaux was passing the corner of Taylor and Washington streets when he was confronted by the pair. They held revolvers against his head and they forced him to hold up his hands, going through his pockets, they took his watch and his keys. After the robbery the physician made his way to his hotel, 335 Stockton street, and telephoned the police.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—The investigation of the police into the mysterious disappearance of Miss Cora Milne, the beautiful bride-to-be, who dropped from sight between Toronto, and this city, led them to the discovery today that she had left Chicago en route west. The report from the railroad companies show that she never reached Omaha.

LATEST NEWS FROM RICHMOND

WATER BONDS ARE LOST BY 76 VOTES

GARBAGE PLANT SUGGESTED ON CITY

Project Has Public Favor, But Fails of Necessary Two-thirds.

RICHMOND, July 23.—That there will be another election held soon on the water bonds was announced today by the members of the Richmond municipal water commission. The bonds yesterday received 76 less than the required necessary two-thirds with only 239 votes cast. The vote was: Yes, 1618; no, 921.

The west side of the city, the Santa Fe and San Pablo districts, went along with the "no" vote. The "yes" vote went south against the "no" vote, with the result that while a majority was polled, the necessary two-thirds was lacking.

The water commissioners will immediately proceed with plans for another vote.

POLICE OFFICERS MUST AWAIT INCREASE IN PAY

RICHMOND, July 23.—The suggested increase in salaries of several of the members of the local police department will not be made until the council learns the size of the budget. This was decided upon at the meeting of the City Council held last night at the City Hall.

Chief of Police Walker was present at the meeting. Upon his recommendation, the following ranks were recommended to five members of the force: R. N. Ruiz, Sergeant Inspector of the Bureau; A. Phillips, Inspector of the Bureau of Identification; J. O. McCowan, Sergeant No. 1; Philip Barry, Sergeant No. 2 and George Belts, Sergeant No. 3.

That the police chief might not be bothered with applications from numerous persons for position as special officers, fourteen men were appointed upon Walker's recommendation to act as special officers. They will not receive compensation from the city. The fourteen are: W. M. CHILDS, J. L. Lumbard, J. C. Abraham, H. Heater, R. P. Pascoe, O. W. L. L. Farrel, W. S. Trull, A. McElasters, H. Smith, S. Dalve, C. C. Leber and A. Trautvetter.

OVERHEATED RANGE IS CAUSE OF SMART BLAZE

RICHMOND, July 23.—Fire threatened the residence of J. B. Baldwin at 2247 Nevins avenue, when an overheated range ignited a wooden shed. The house was discovered by the young son of the household, and the prompt action of Fire Company No. 2 prevented the total loss of the structure. Members of the family were in the rear yard and the boy happened to enter the house by chance. He called to his mother, who telephoned to the department. The loss amounted to about $75, and was covered by insurance.

While the department was engaged in fighting the flames another call was sent in from Sixth and Ohio, where a grass fire threatened to get beyond control. No. 3 laid a line of hose and with the aid of the chemical of No. 2 soon had the blaze extinguished.

RICHMOND CHAIR FIRM SEEKING PANAMA AWARD

RICHMOND, July 23.—The California Chair Company, whose plant is located in West Richmond, is bidding with several other furniture companies throughout the state for an immense government job calling for 5000 chairs. The chairs are for use in the Panama canal zone, and will be of the rocker-chair style produced by this company.

Work at the factory is holding up very well and yesterday a shipment of thirty dozen chairs was made to Honolulu.

Health Commissioner, However, Recommends Out-to-Sea Transportation.

RICHMOND, July 23.—Frederick P. Smith, an incinerator contractor and builder of Pasadena, presented arguments to the city council last night in regard to the establishment of a refuse destructor in this city. Smith declared that a system costing $12,000 would dispose of all Richmond's garbage. He said that he could build one for $8000 which would be suitable for Richmond's present site, but he said that with the increased growth which will come to the city, a larger one should be erected.

Councilman Otto Ludwig questioned Smith in regard to the Berkeley garbage incinerator. Smith said that system was inadequate and said that both Berkeley and San Francisco had poorly constructed systems.

The council took no action. Dr. Blake, City Health Commissioner, in his report declared that incinerators were a nuisance and urged that the city take its garbage to sea as is done by Oakland.

FILES SUIT AGAINST LAURITZEN COMPANY

RICHMOND, July 23.—Roes Morgan, consulting engineer for the Ellis Landing Company, filed a suit before the inspectors of hulls and boilers of San Francisco, Joseph H. H. Guthrie, for alleged violation of national marine laws by the Lauritzen Transportation Company.

The feud between the Ellis Landing and Dock Company and the H. C. Cutting interests, which broke out at Monday night's council meeting, has been brewing under the surface for several months.

The suit was filed because Lauritzen broke through the dredged pipe lines on several occasions, it is alleged, without waiting a reasonable time for the dredger to perform the work.

They may lose the license to operate their boats.

The filing of the suit by the Ellis Landing and Dock Company is looked upon as the culmination of a long feud between the two companies. The Ellis Landing Company, which is performing the work under a contract and with heavy bonds at stake for the non-performance of the work.

The new cutter for the Reclamation Company's old dredge was completed last month and work with the new cutter will begin soon. The work has been slackened off and several men laid off for the past two weeks.

R. R. SECURITIES NORMAL

NEW YORK, July 23.—Piling of the suit against Lauritzen followed by another setting movement in the stock market. While New Haven shares were not effected, other issues, as Erie and Southern Railway fell on moderate offerings.
